SALWA ZEIDAN GALLERY ANNOUNCES INAUGURAL OF NEW SOLO EXHIBITION OF AIMAN FUDA

Abu Dhabi, UAE – March 10th, 2023– As part of its ongoing goal of contributing to the vibrant art scene of the capital, the Salwa Zeidan Gallery announced it will be hosting a Solo exhibition titled “FACES”

The exhibition will feature a broad selection of Aiman Fuda’s work, whose works come in mixed media on canvas, The official opening of “FACES” is scheduled to take place at 18:00 on the 15th of March, 2023.

This Solo show will bring a vibrant array of colors coming to life in diverse modes of expression and styles with a lineup of artworks that viewers will enjoy the beauty of each artwork.

The talented Syrian artist Aiman Fuda features his unique take on the human face, his work is a remarkable exploration of the beauty and complexity of the human form, as seen through the lens of the suffering and agony of the Syrians and what they have been through.

The earthquake that happened in Syria and Turkey had a huge impact on the artist, his creation is expressing the emotion of fear, resilience, sadness, and hope, the painting includes a variety of colors from bright colors as hope and dark colors as fear and sadness.

Fuda has chosen to focus on the faces of his people, most of his work is a collection of portraits that capture the essence of his city inhabitants. From women to young children, that are still in his memory. His vivid brushstrokes and bold colors bring to life the diversity and complexity of the human face.

“Exhibitions are truly the pulse of resonating culture in every region they serve, and it is vital that every single artwork displayed be powerful enough to positively expand the viewer’s mind and draw them deeper into the art world, says gallery director, Salwa Zeidan, “I’m confident art lovers in Abu Dhabi are going to find this line up highly engaging and inspiring”

About the Salwa Zeidan Gallery

Salwa Zeidan Gallery is a Contemporary Art Gallery that was reopened in 2009, after being established in 1994 in Abu Dhabi. The gallery represents artists from all around the globe by offering them a space to showcase their work in the Middle East's capital of art and culture: Abu Dhabi. The facility enables International and Middle Eastern contemporary masters as well as emerging Emirati artists with mediums spanning from paintings, photography and sculptures to installation and performance art to showcase their works to art lovers and connoisseurs from across the UAE and beyond. The style of works displayed at the gallery bare a resemblance when it comes to a minimalist vision and sensibility, all of which are personally reviewed and selected by Salwa Zeidan herself to ensure that these carry an emotional artistic touch rather than a commercial and mechanical feel.
